WARRIORS CAPTURE MONCTON TOURNEY

HOST NATIONAL CHAMPS WATERLOO

Returning from the Maritimes with the Moncton University Tournament Championship as their prize, the Loyola Hockey Warriors will continue to test their skills against the best when they host the defending National Champion Waterloo Warriors on Friday evening November 1st, and the Guelph Gryphons on Saturday, November 2nd. Friday evening's contest is slated for an 8 P.M. start and Saturday's will start at 2 P.M.

The Warriors opened up their 1974-75 schedule with an impressive 8-1 victory over the Ottawa Gee Gees last Friday night at Loyola. They then flew to Moncton and faced the host University of Moncton squad Saturday night, coming up with a hard-fought 6-4 victory. In Sunday's tourney final the Warriors came face to face with the perennial National Champions, the University of Toronto Blues. With Jim Corsi turning in an outstanding performance in the nets, Loyola dominated the Blues as no Canadian squad has done for years and came out with a 5-1 victory and the Tourney title.

Besides Corsi, who was also in the nets for the Moncton victory, the Warriors have been led by the strong play of the new line of John Harris (former Toronto Marlboro), Ron Hansis and Dave Wilson who have accounted for 13 of the Warriors 19 goals in the first three games of the season. The only sour note over the weekend was the loss of star defenseman Mike O'Doherty. The Acadia transfer separated a shoulder and will be out for approximately six weeks.

WARRIORS INVITED TO TOP COLLEGE TOURNEY

Coach Paul Arsenault has announced that his Warriors have accepted an invitation to participate in the Laurentian University Tournament, deemed by many to be the top intercollegiate tournament in Canada. On December 18, 19, 20, & 21st of this year the Warriors, along with college powers Toronto, St. Mary's, Ohio State, Waterloo, Lake Superior State, Laurentian and Alberta, will battle for the tournament crown.
